October 23, 2009, 12 pm – 2 pm

Location: IB3313

12:00 – 12:50 Understanding and addressing the obstacles our students face in using the library

- A. Elinor Appel will present research by university librarian John Hickock of students' attitudes to libraries in Asian countries and the implications his findings have for our students (10 minutes).
- B. Small group discussion and output: what are the obstacles our students face and what are some possible solutions? (40 minutes).

12:50 – 1:00 BREAK

1:00 – 2:00 “What is Information Literacy, Anyway?”

- A. Jill Bauer, Marcie Leek, and Elinor Appel will present their LSTA-funded work introducing information literacy into their coursework (30 minutes).
- B. Small group discussion and output: how can we create assignments that integrate IL meaningfully into the curriculum? (30 minutes). Questions to consider:
  - What are our goals/outcomes in sending students to the library?
  - How can we make their information-literacy assignments transferable to their everyday life and needs?
