

IS IT A GOOD GRAMMAR WEBSITE? YOU DECIDE.

Name of website: _____

URL: _____

Who wrote it? Who is the author or owner? (Look for links that say Home or About Us.)

- Can you find the author's or owner's name? Check one: Yes _____ No _____
- Does the author or owner give you contact information? Check one: Yes _____ No _____
- What is the name of the organization/institution that owns the website? (For instance, North Seattle Community College owns northseattle.edu.) _____

Why was this website created? What is its purpose?

1. What is in the url (web address)? (Example: www.facweb.northseattle.edu/eappel.) Check one:

- .com – commercial organization ➡ profit ($) from learners
- .edu – educational organization ➡ instruct learners
- .gov – published by the government ➡ help learners
- .net – on the Internet ➡ ?
- .org – an organization ➡ ?

2. What does this website want from you? Check your answers:

- Name and email address?
- Money/credit card number?
- Does it want you to read ads? (Look for pop-up ads, links to click.)

3. What does this website offer you? Check your answers:

- Grammar practice
- Reading skills practice
- Listening skills practice
- Information about things you can buy to help you learn English

What level is this website? Is it right for you and your classmates? Check one:

Lessons are:

- Easy
- Difficult
- Your level

Your decision & why: _____

